Hon: Fredrick Block

United States District Court

Eastern District of New York

225 Cadman Plaza Brooklyn New York 11201

To: The Honorable Judge Fredrick Block

Docket # 16-CV-4560 I Tiffany S. Evans am writing this letter to inform you of my position at NYCTA/MTA. Although during training I was repeatedly harassed and retaliated against I did pass my training and am qualified currently as MTA bus operator. Until today the harassment and retaliation continues by likes of the Director of Grand avenue depot. Claissa Barracoles.

The court authorized the recording of my training sessions, which I utilized and these such recordings will support my allegations. I informed my attorney Eric Baum and Sagar Shah immediately of my issues. Mr Baum expressed to me that the case was over and that he would not voice my concerns to the court. For months I have pleaded with Mr Baum to help me resolve what was going on. This all started on May 2, 2019. Mr Baum advised me to resolve it on my own through the job.

I have had several conversations with Mr Baum/Shah asking why the evidence which was paystubs from working at Fresh Direct which Mr Baum has in his possession wasn't submitted to the court in regards to supporting the award of $100,000 in lost wages to be upheld. Mr Baum made it very clear that it wasn't in the best interest of his financial benefit to receive 40% of $32,500; which would be awarded to myself. Therefor going and applying for fees seperately without my authorization. In conclusion receiving $152,000+ plus and myself receiving $32,500. Your court authorized the video recordings and Mr Baum held my voice I feel gagged and harnel. There are a few more issue along with evidence that I would like to submit. I am requesting a meeting with the court in the mean + time I am currently writing a letter with the details and evidence of all issues dealing with this case

Sincerely yours
